

Post Test Answer Key- Room Change

LeadingAge®

PATHWAY HEALTH
Insight | Expertise | Knowledge

State logo added here. If not, delete text box

POST TEST ANSWER KEY – ROOM CHANGE

Question: True or False?	Answer
1. The room change notice is only given to resident’s representatives.	False – the room change notice is required to be provided in written format when to the resident AND their representative prior to the room change.
2. The resident only has a right to refuse a room change in or out of a Medicare or Medicaid certified bed if it for staff convenience.	True - there are no other regulations for resident refusal of room change.
3. The facility is in compliance with the regulation by writing a note in the resident’s record prior to assigning a new roommate.	False – a written notice must be provide to the resident and representative before the arrival of the new roommate.
4. Room changes never have a negative effect on residents.	False -changes of any kind can have a negative effect on residents if they experience strong emotion and try to adjust to the change.
5. Residents’ families can require a room change for their loved one.	False - the facility will try to accommodate residents’ and families preferences for room selection.
6. Room change notices are only required for Medicaid residents.	False – the room change policy applies to all residents regardless of pay source.
7. 7. If the resident lives in a bed in a composite distinct part, they can only be requested to move by the facility within the same building unless they volunteer to move to another distinct part location.	True - resident can volunteer to move to another area of the facility’s composite distinct part.
8. The facility can give verbal notice of a new roommate to the resident and representative.	False -a written notice is required.
9. The facility must allow three days after a resident passes from a semi-private room before admitting another resident into the room.	False -the facility should allow as much time as possible for the remaining resident to adjust to the loss of their roommate before admitted a new roommate. There are no required time frames.
10. The facility can place residents together according to their pay source and offer a lower level of care and services based on how much the facility is paid.	False -The facility must provide the care and services needed by the resident regardless of pay source.

This document is for general informational purposes only.

It does not represent legal advice nor relied upon as supporting documentation or advice with CMS or other regulatory entities.

© Pathway Health Services, Inc. – All Rights Reserved – Copy with Permission Only - Requirements of Participation P&P Manual 2017