

Learn from Leaders in Aging Services

Get a firsthand look at career options in the field of aging services at the LeadingAge Annual Meeting Virtual Experience this November. By participating in the student program, you'll build your job searching skills, network with executives, and meet other students who share your desire to make a difference during exciting networking activities. Get the insight you need to make well-informed choices for your career—join us online this November.

What you'll experience:

- Meet executives and recent graduates who just entered the field.
- Learn about different career paths and get the latest job search strategies.
- Attend the Virtual Career Fair and meet with prospective employers that are looking for qualified candidates.

"I love that with aging services, there's a good partnership of the relationships and the business aspect. People are incredibly passionate about the population they're serving."

~Past Student Program Attendee

LEARN MORE | LeadingAge.org/Students

Virtual Career Fair

Meet with employers hiring now

Opportunities in the aging services field are more wide-ranging than you think! The field is expected to have a huge demand for jobs in the next decade, and this is your chance to see which career paths speak to you. At the Virtual Career Fair, organizations that are currently hiring will have their own booth where you can meet with the hiring manager virtually via video or ask them questions via chat. There will also be dedicated “office hours” available, which provide opportunities to focus on popular topics such as PhD careers, licensure, networking, and more.

AT THE CAREER FAIR, YOU CAN EXPLORE CAREER PATHS IN:

- |   |   |   |                          |
|---|---|---|--------------------------|
|   | Administration/management                         |  | Human resources          |
|  | Business/finance/office management                |  | Information technology   |
|  | Culinary  |  | Lifestyle and enrichment |
|  | Environmental services/maintenance/facilities |  | Marketing/communications |
|  | Fundraising and development                       |  | Nursing                  |

“It was helpful to see the other opportunities in the field—almost any job you want—and I didn’t know that when I originally decided to get into aging.”

~Past Student Program Attendee

REGISTER TODAY | LeadingAge.org/Students

Registration fee waivers are available—apply when you sign up!

