Implications to CMS Proposed SNF Rule for Fiscal Year 2023 and Their Impact to Your Bottom Line

Overview

The CMS SNF Proposed Rule for the Fiscal Year 2023 has some significant updates that will impact many nursing facilities. These updates include a proposed PDPM parity adjustment, updates to the QRP and VBP programs that will impact payments, and discussions regarding staffing minimums. The session will discuss what these changes are and how facilities can navigate these changes while also dealing with staffing shortages and rising inflation.

Objectives:

- Understand the updates to the SNF PPS FY2023 Proposed (or Final rule) related to PDPM parity adjustments.
- Review the updates to the Quality Reporting Program and the Value-Based Purchasing Program
- Explore the future initiatives CMS has identified in the FY23 rule, including staffing mandates and changes in quality metrics

Targeted Audience:

CEO, CFO, COO, Nursing Home Administrators and Clinical Leadership who work in Skilled Nursing Homes and Life Plan Communities

Speakers:

- Deb D. Emerson, CPA, RAC-CT, RAC-CTA from CliftonLarsonAllen LLP
- Jillian Martin, MSN, RN, FNP-C, DNS-CT, RAC-CTA, RAC-MT from CliftonLarsonAllen LLP
