

POST TEST ANSWER KEY FOR BASELINE CARE PLAN

Question: True or False?	Answer
1. The facility must complete a baseline care plan within 72 hours of admission.	False. The facility must complete a baseline care plan within 48 hours of admission.
2. The resident and resident representative must be involved in the development of the baseline care plan.	True. It is imperative that the resident/resident representative are involved, when applicable to ensure person-centered care.
3. The resident and resident representative only need to be verbally informed of the summary of the baseline care plan.	False. The resident/resident representative must be provided with a written summary of the baseline care plan. Information should be discussed verbally but there must be documented evidence that written summary was provided.
4. Any changes in the resident condition must be reflected in the baseline care plan.	True. The 48-hour baseline care plan must be updated with changes of condition – in addition, an updated written summary must be provided to the resident/representative.
5. The information from the hospital is not necessary when completing the baseline care plan because the resident is not in the hospital any longer.	False. The information from the hospital, MD orders, assessment process all need to be in the 48-hour baseline care plan.