

POST TEST ANSWER KEY FOR MEDICATION MANAGEMENT

Question: True or False?	Answer
1. I am required to know what each medication I administer is used for.	True. In addition, you should know what the side effects and possible adverse consequences are as well to monitor appropriately.
2. There are 7 rights of drug administration.	True. This includes the right: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Resident• Drug• Dose• Route• Time• Reason• Documentation
3. It is okay to document the medication right before I administer it.	False. Documentation should be completed after the medication is administered
4. I can crush all of the oral medications and give in applesauce together if I give enough fluids to swallow completely.	False. Each medication should be given separately with adequate fluids.
5. I should never pre-pour medications for the resident.	True.
6. I should never administer medications I feel I am not competent to administer.	True. Notify your supervisor if you do not feel competent and need additional training.
7. If a medication is ordered in an excessive dose, I can always administer it if I double check and the physician indicates to give it.	False. Discuss with the supervisor, Medical Director and Pharmacist if you have concerns regarding the dose and resident situation.